Priest in Ireland pens touching poem about coronavirus lockdown

<https://www.irishcentral.com/news/coronavirus-lockdown-poem>

History will remember when the world stopped
And the flights stayed on the ground.
And the cars parked in the street.
And the trains didn't run.

History will remember when the schools closed
And the children stayed indoors
And the medical staff walked towards the fire
And they didn't run.

History will remember when the people sang
On their balconies, in isolation
But so very much together
In courage and song.

History will remember when the people fought
For their old and their weak
Protected the vulnerable
By doing nothing at all.

History will remember when the virus left
And the houses opened
And the people came out
And hugged and kissed
And started again

Kinder than before

I'm dropping the word
"lockdown" from my vocabulary. I prefer to think of the next 4 weeks as a...

♥️ RĀHUI ♥️

Because this is about honouring the earth, protecting the people & nourishing the spirit - all for the greater good.
